Notification

No. 2/3/94-HD(G)

The following Notification declaring the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) as an unlawful Association under the Unlawful Activities (prevention) Act, 1967, (Central Act 37 of 1967), issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs vide Notification No. S. O. 710(E) and published in the Gazette of India, (Extraordinary) on 14-5-2006, is hereby published for general information of the public.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Ms. Biju R. Naik, Under Secretary (Home).

Porvorim, 20th September, 2006.

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

Government of India

S. O. 710(E). Whereas the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (hereinafter referred to as the LTTE), is an association actually based in Sri Lanka but having sympathizers, supporters and agents on the Indian soil;

And whereas the LTTE's objective for a separate homeland (Tamil Eelam) for all tamils threatens the sovereignty and territorial integrity of India, and amounts to cession and secession of a part of the territory of India from the Union and thus falls within the ambit of an unlawful activity;

And whereas, the turbelence in Sri Lanka is being exploited by pro-LTTE forces to draw up support for the LTTE and its cause by taking out processions, demonstrations, etc., in spite of the ban, causing disquiet and threat to the security of the State of Tamil Nadu;

And whereas most of the criminal cases involving the LTTE and pro-LTTE groups like Tamil National Retrieval Troops (TNRT), Tamil Nadu Liberation Army (TNLA) and Tamiliar Pasarai, have ended in conviction but the Tamil Eelam concept still remains as a goal among the pro-LTTE groups in Tamil Nadu. The forces are still at work to further its cause thereby contributing to the vulnerable milieu in which the LTTE's free functioning in India as a lawful association, if allowed, would be highly detrimental to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of India.

And whereas the LTTE continues to be an extremely potent, most lethal and well-organized terrorist force in Shri Lanka and has strong connections in Tamil Nadu and certain pockets of southern India. The LTTE continues to use the State of Tamil Nadu as the base for carrying out of smuggling of essential items like petrol and diesel, besides drugs to Sri Lanka;

And whereas the LTTE will continue to remain a strong terrorist movement and stimulate the Secessionist sentiment to enhance the support base of the LTTE in Tamil Nadu as long as Shri Lanka continues to remain in a state of ethnic strife torn by the demand for Tamil Eelam which finds a strong echo in Tamil Nadu due to linguistic, cultural, ethnic and historical affinity between the Sri Lankan Tamils and the Indian Tamils in Sri Lanka;

And whereas for the reasons aforesaid, the Central Government is of the opinion that the LTTE is an unlawful association and there is a continuing strong need to control all such separatist activities by all possible means;

And whereas the Central Government has the information that –

- i) enquiries on the activities of the LTTE cadres, dropouts sympathizers who have been traced out recently in the State of Tamil Nadu would suggest that the cadres sent to Tamil Nadu would ultimately be utilized by the LTTE for unlawful activities;
- ii) the activities of the pro-LTTE organizations and individuals have come to notice in India, despite the ban in force and attempts have been made by these forces to extend their support to the LTTE;
- iii) the LTTE leaders have been cynical of India's policy on their organization and reaction of the State machinery in curbing their activities;

And whereas the Central Government is of the opinion that the aforesaid activities of the LTTE continue to pose a threat to, and are detrimental to, the sovereignty and territorial integrity of India as also public order and, therefore, should be declared as an unlawful association;

And whereas the Central Government is further of the opinion that because (i) of its continued violent and disruptive activities prejudicial to the integrity and sovereignty of India; (ii) it continues to adopt a strong and anti-India posture and also continues to post a grave threat to the security of Indian nationals, it is necessary to declare the LTTE as "an Unlawful association" with immediate effect;

Now, therefore in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and proviso to sub-section (3) of Section 3 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act 1967 (37 of 1967), the Central Government hereby declares the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (the LTTE) as an unlawful association and directs that this notification shall, subject to any order that may be made under Section 4 of the said Act, have effect on and from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.
